

Séminaire J. Barker

The Legacy of War among the Maisin of Papua New Guinea

The Maisin people of Collingwood Bay in the Northern Province of Papua New Guinea regard themselves as a warrior people. In this presentation, I examine the articulation of the warrior image in Maisin oral traditions, memories of the Second World War, and contemporary opposition to large-scale logging in their traditional territory.